Annual SAM Ministry Review

After 11 months, the council/supervisor from the congregation, or their designees, along with the Mentor will meet with the SAM to review the SAM's ministry of the previous year. The purpose of this review is threefold:

- 1. To identify strengths for ministry that the SAM should continue to develop, and which can then be reflected in a renewed SAM-Mentor agreement.
- 2. To identify growing edges that the SAM needs to address, and which can then be reflected in a renewed SAM-Mentor agreement.
- 3. To help discern whether the congregation and SAM will agree to enter into another year of ministry with a renewed covenant and SAM-Mentor agreement.

Instructions for completing this process: About 45 days before the final day of the existing covenant between the SAM and the congregation, the SAM, Mentor and Congregation Council (or their designees) will meet to complete this review. Any of these parties can initiate the review process, but it is ultimately the responsibility of the SAM to ensure that it happens.

Approx. 45 days before existing Covenant End-date: The parties schedule the review to occur sometime with the next 30 days. Please inform the synod when this process has begun.

Approx. 30 days before Covenant end-date: Each participant fills out this form (including the SAM and the Mentor).

Approx. 15 days before the Covenant end-date: The SAM, Mentor and Council or their representatives meet to conduct this review. (NOTE: Synod staff will attend some, though not all, of these reviews.)

During the Review: One member of the council acts as the facilitator.

- Begin with prayer
- Explain this process
- Taking one section at a time, have each person go around and share their answers in that section. The SAM and the Mentor share their responses, too. Do this, always remembering the admonition in Ephesians 4:17 that we are to "speak the truth in love."
- At the end, agree together on the action steps.
- End with prayer.
- Send copies of each person's review and the agreed-upon action steps to the synod to Bishop Bill Tesch, btesch@cord.edu and Kip Fontaine, SAM coordinator, kipfontaine@cord.edu
- Questions? Please reach out to Bishop Bill Tesch, btesch@cord.edu.
